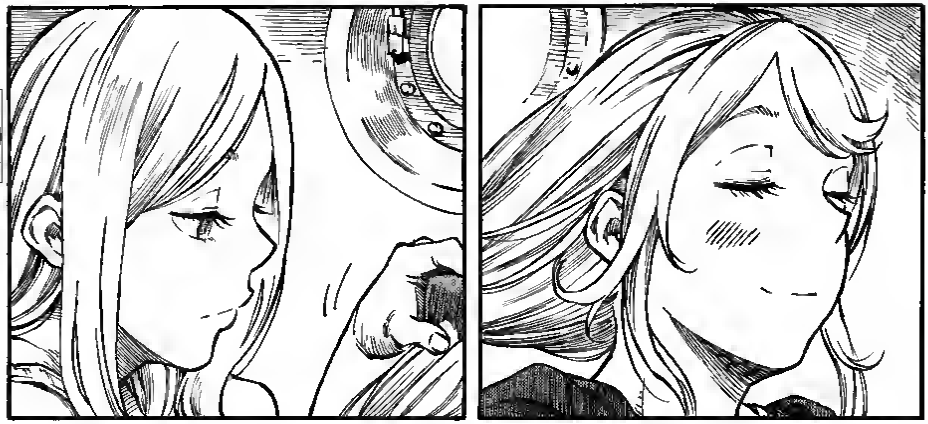
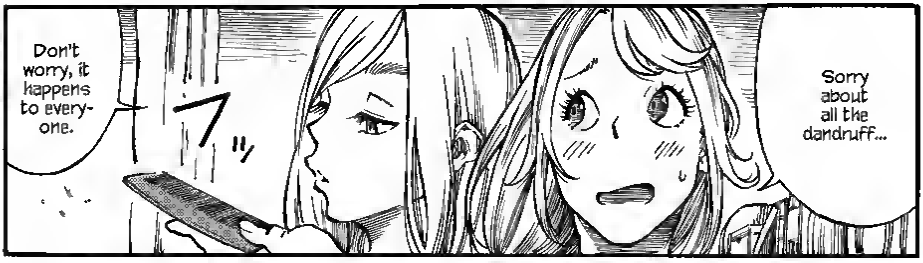
Dragon meat is his favorite food

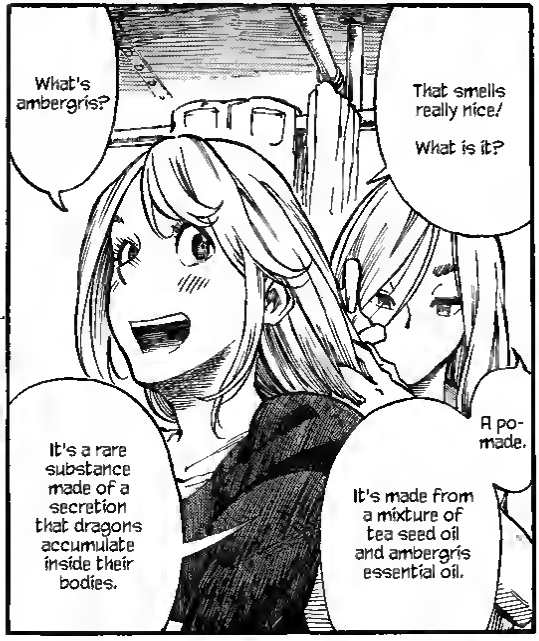


TAKITA

New recruit



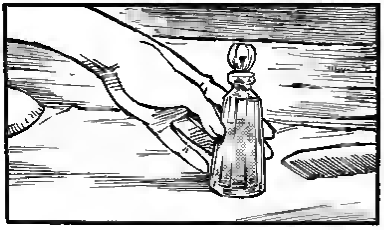
SFX: PUFF



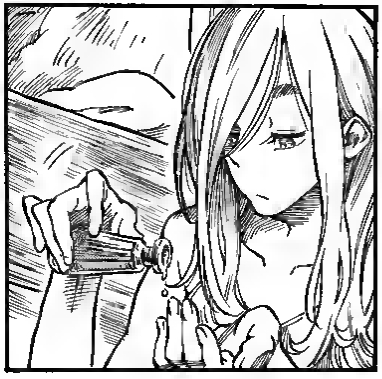
What's ambergris?
That smells really nice! What is it?
A pomade.
It's made from a mixture of tea seed oil and ambergris essential oil.
It's a rare substance made of a secretion that dragons accumulate inside their bodies.

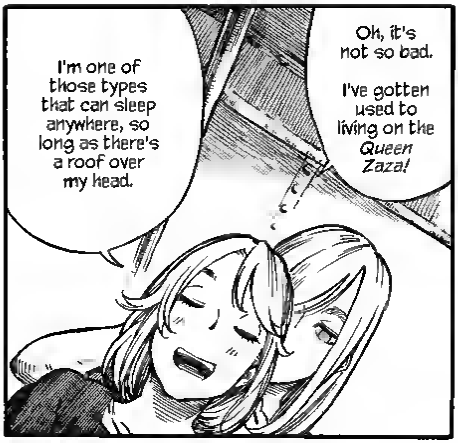
VARNABELL (VARNEY)

The "cool beauty" of the crew

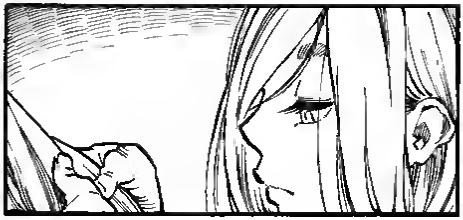


3



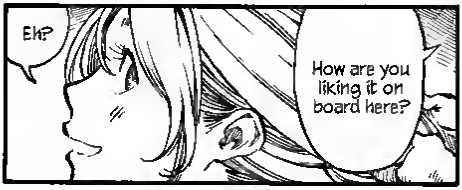


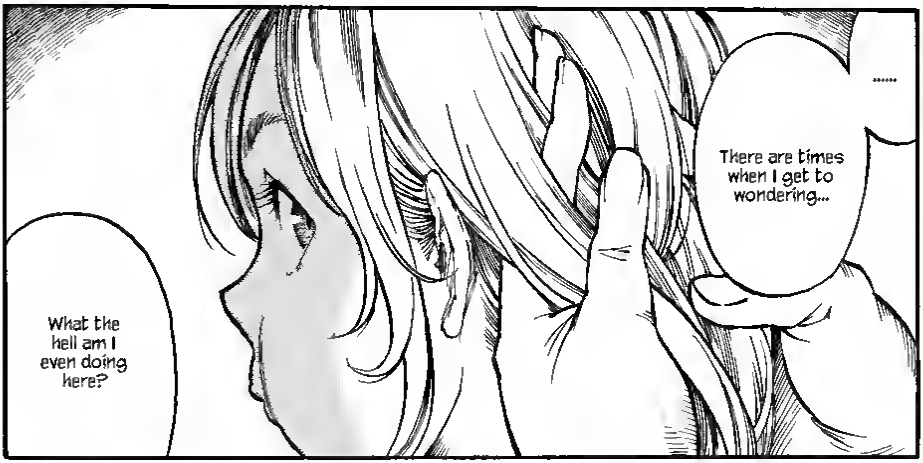
I'm one of those types that can sleep anywhere, so long as there's a roof over my head.
Oh, it's not so bad.
I've gotten used to living on the Queen Zaza!



GIRAUD

Extremely serious

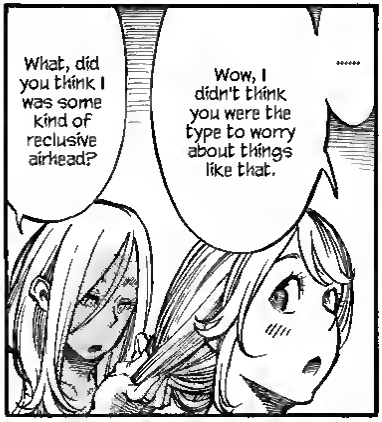


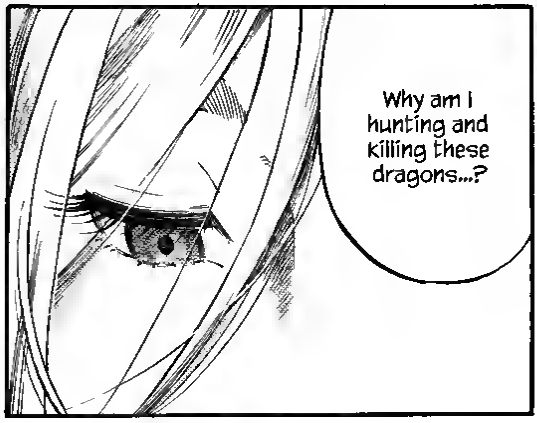


GIBBS

The long serving boatswain of the Queen Zaza

4



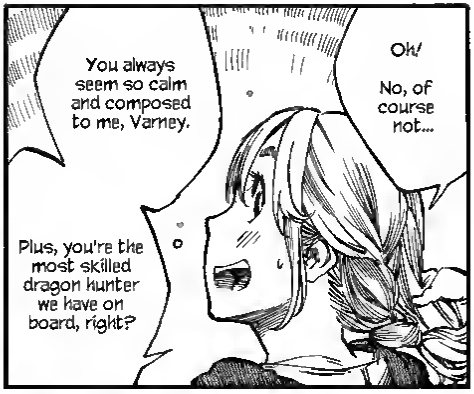


CROCCO

The navigator and proxy for the captain

NICO

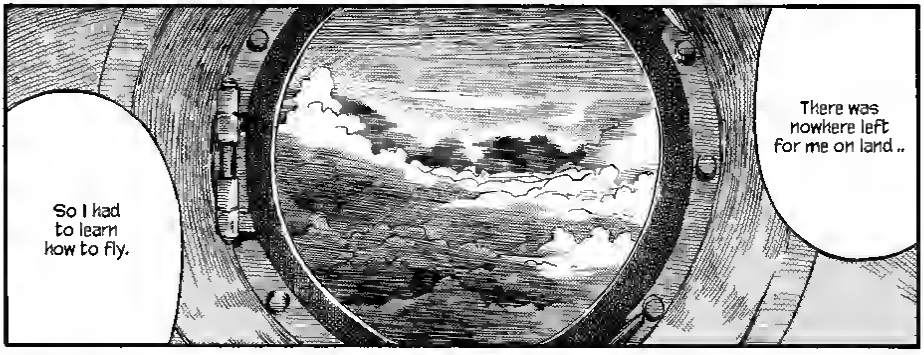
Never takes off his hat



You always seem so calm and composed to me, Varney.
Oh!
No, of course not...
Plus, you're the most skilled dragon hunter we have on board, right?

GAGA

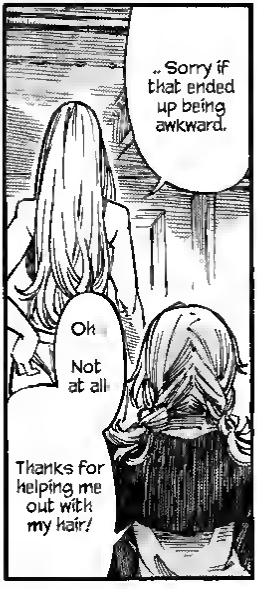
Has a really hard forehead

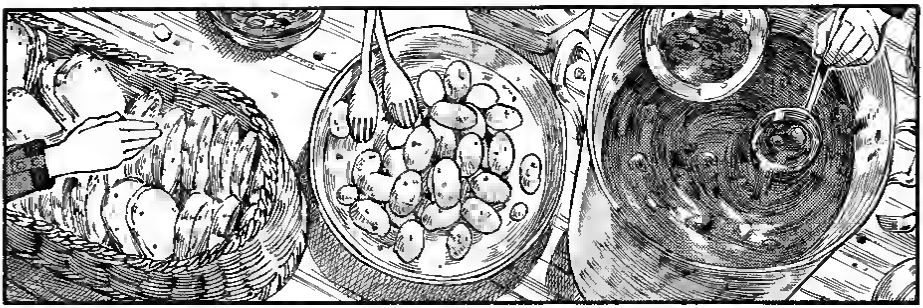


5

OUKEN

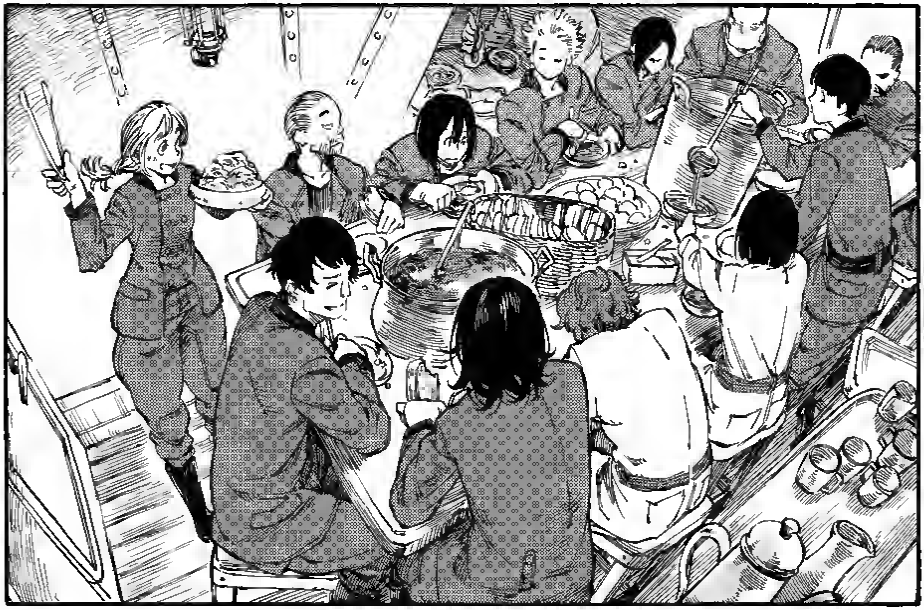
A clean freak.





HIRO

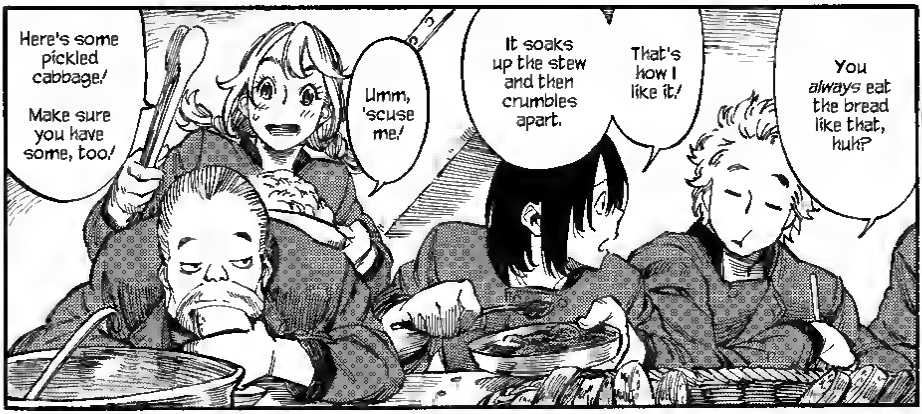
Trainee engineer



DOUG

Chief engineer

6



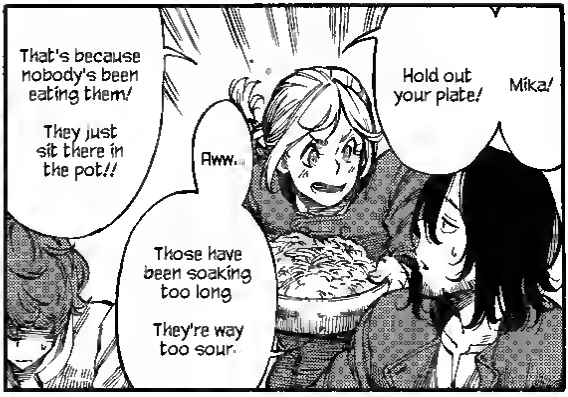
Here's some pickled cabbage!
Make sure you have some, too!
Umm, 'scuse me!
It soaks up the stew and then crumbles apart.
That's how I like it!
You always eat the bread like that, huh?

MEYN

Female engineer

YOSHI

Head cook.



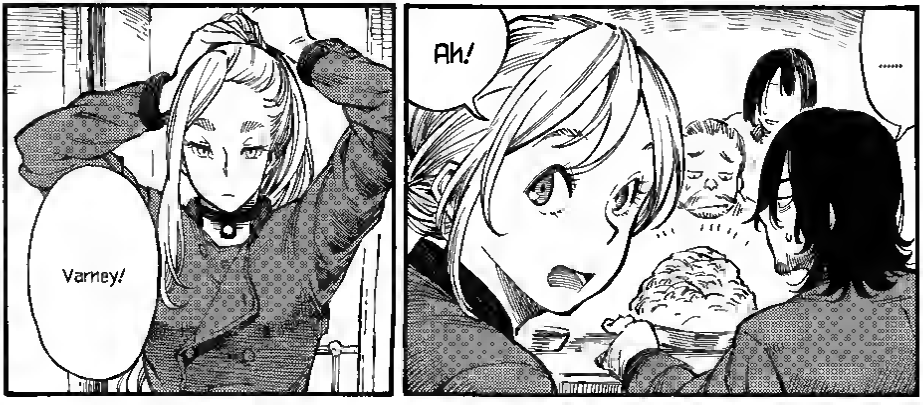
That's because nobody's been eating them!
They just sit there in the pot!!
Aww...
Those have been soaking too long
They're way too sour.
Hold out your plate!
Mika!
You can't just eat stew and potatoes!

VADAKIN

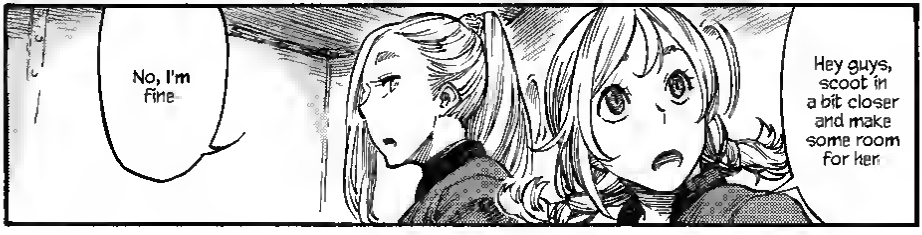
Meticulously grooms his mustache every day

CAPELLA

Helmswoman



7



Hey, Takita!
I left my dirty clothes in front of the men's cabin.
Whaat!?
At least do your own laundry, please!
Doing all the chores is a new recruit's duty, Takita!

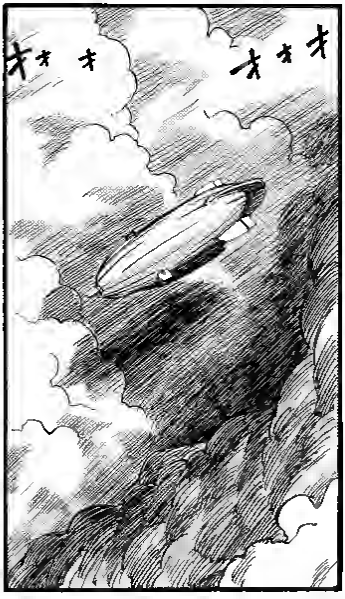
SORAYA

A bit on the flashy side

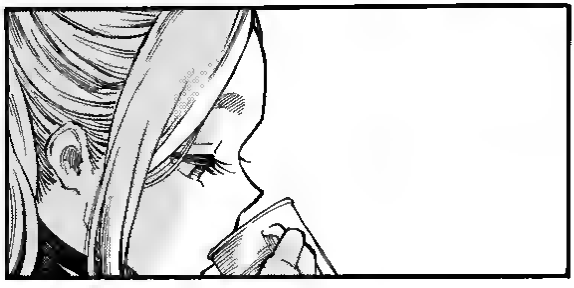
FAY

Loves reading

8



SFX. GOBBLE GOBBLE

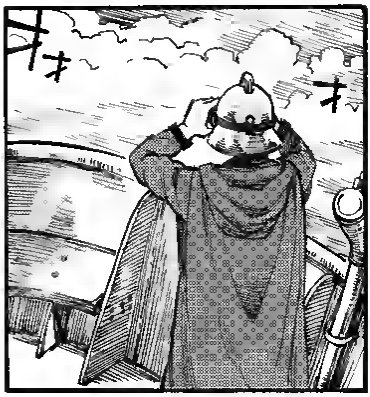


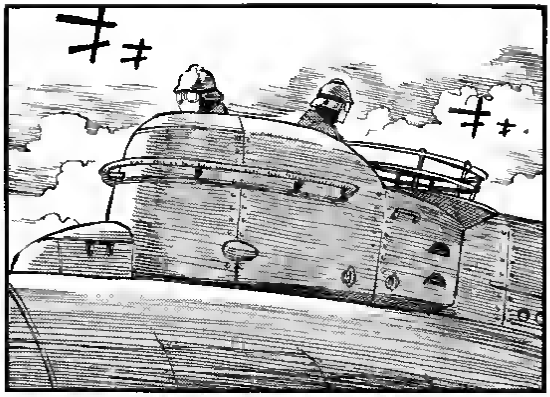
BACCO

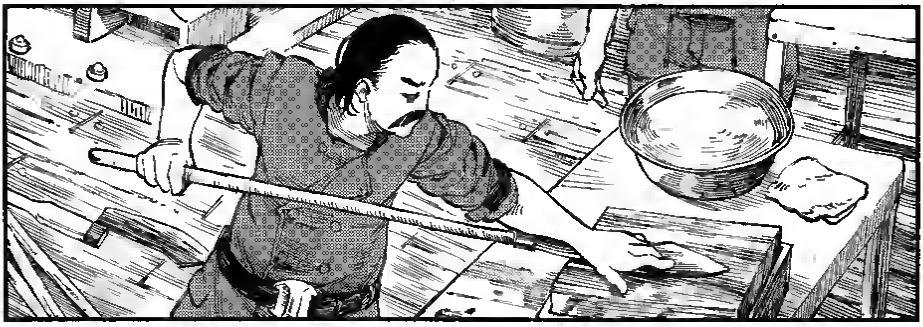
Usually drunk.

LEE

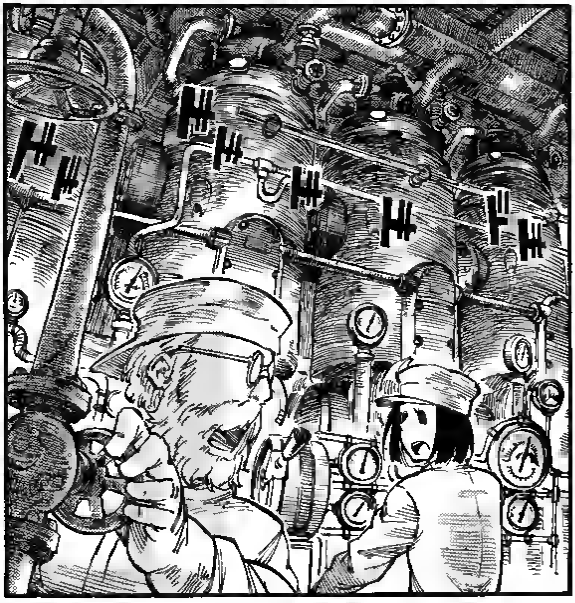
Secretary and accountant







9



It's not worth it if I can't go at it with full force.
Stop being so rough!
It's too much!
Hey!!
No, Mika, you can't...!
.....
I've had enough!
Get away from me!
10
I've never seen anyone get so worked up over some laundry.
Varney!!

SFX: STARE
.....
What?
....Nothing
I was only trying to help!
Okay, I'll take over.
Mika keeps spinning it as fast as he can!
SFX. SPIN
Okay.
Here, Mika.
Hang these out to dry.
Hmm?
Notice anything different?
Do you...
Oh, by the way...

Really!?
ズィ
For example...
A nice smell, or...
Well...
Oh yeah, that's one intense scent.
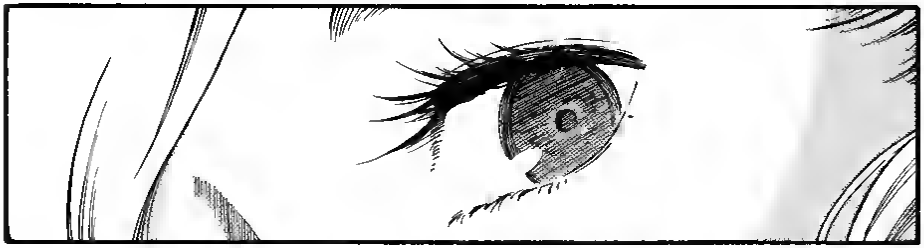
I sure do.

And it smells delicious.

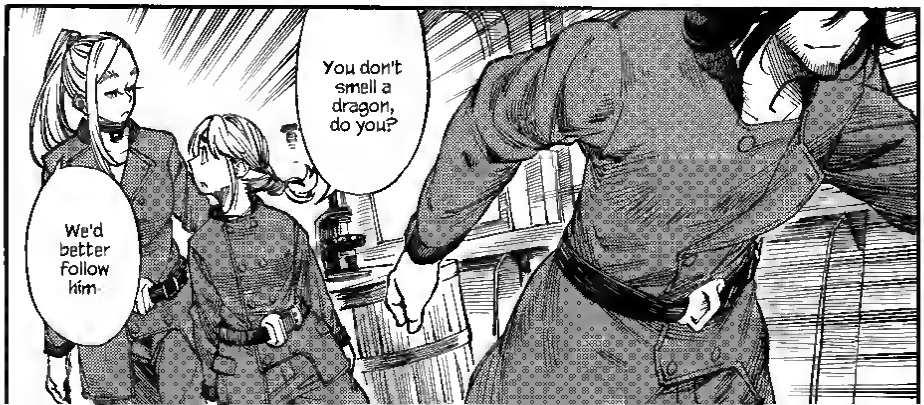
12

Dragon!

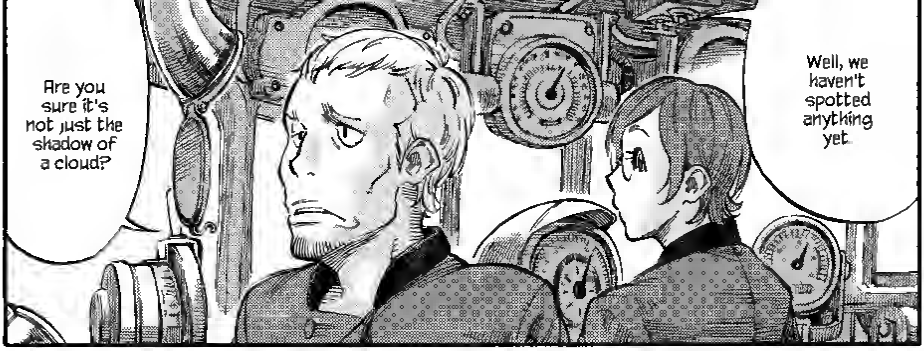
Where is it!?
It's hidden by the clouds
I'll head to the crow's nest and check



13

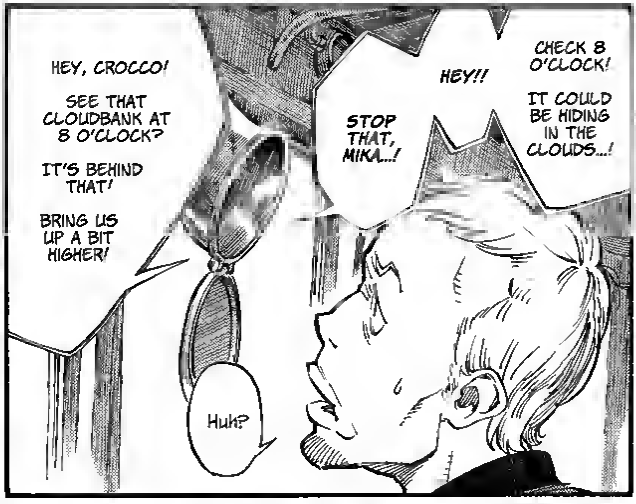


You don't smell a dragon, do you?
We'd better follow him.



Are you sure it's not just the shadow of a cloud?
Well, we haven't spotted anything yet

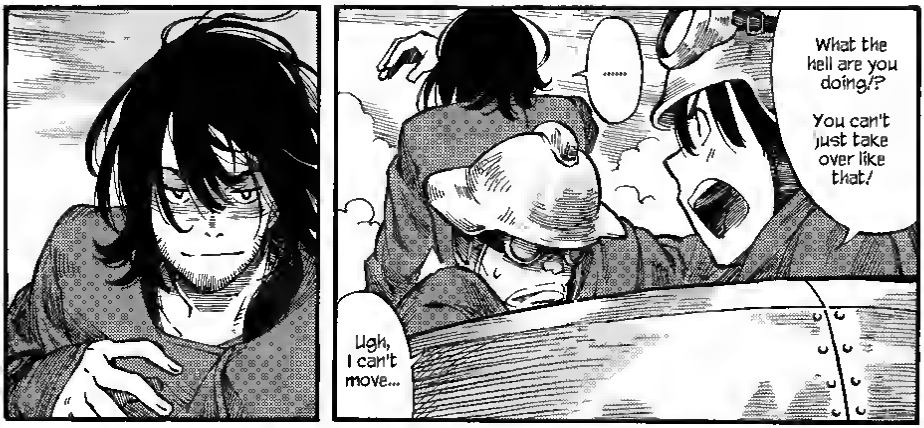
I'm the captain's proxy, dammit!
Show some respect!



HEY, CROCCO!
SEE THAT CLOUDBANK AT 8 O'CLOCK?
IT'S BEHIND THAT!
BRING US UP A BIT HIGHER!
Huh?
HEY!!
STOP THAT, MIKA...!
CHECK 8 O'CLOCK!
IT COULD BE HIDING IN THE CLOUDS...!

14

Haha...
He really needs to learn how to simmer down.
DING
Mika's not even assigned to the forenoon watch!



.....
What the hell are you doing!?
You can't just take over like that!
Ugh, I can't move...

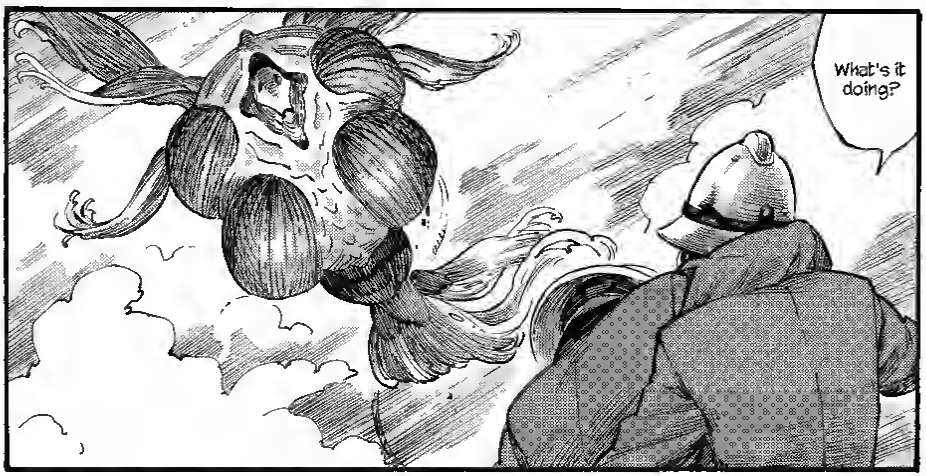
SFX: SCREECH
What's wrong with everyone?
Huh?
SFX: SCREECH
.....!!
No, I can't even stand up straight...!
You okay?

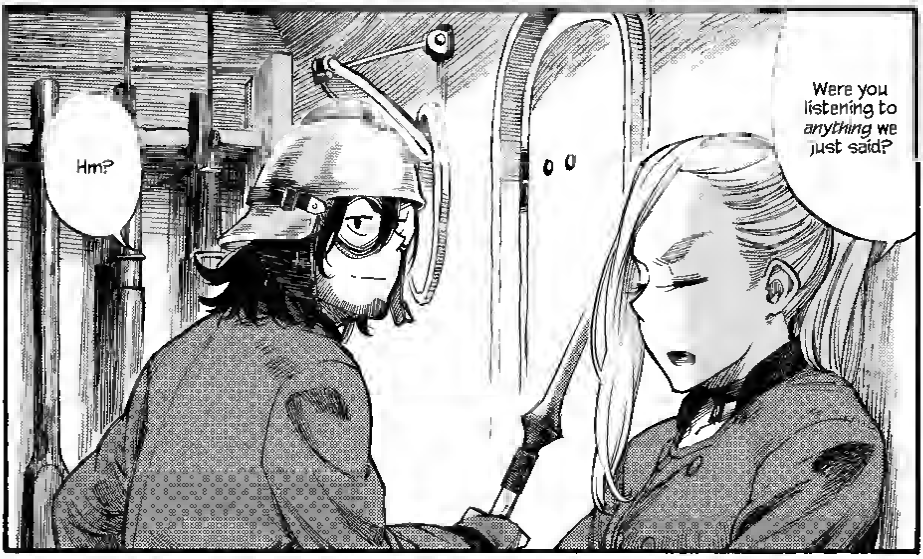
19



What's it doing?

It doesn't look like we'll be able to fire the bomb lance or anchor at it...
Have some water.
I'm so dizzy...
It's using sound
When it makes that weird noise, your head starts spinning and it's hard to stand up
It's probably best to wait for it to exhaust itself, then.

20



Hm?
Were you listening to anything we just said?

I'm not going to wait around to see how many hours it takes for that dragon to die.
I'm going to go finish it off now.

And how the hell do you plan to do that?
If I can manage to land on top of it, it won't matter whether I can stand up or not.
Yes it will!
Are you crazy!?
You could go deaf!

21

Is killing dragons really that much fun?
Mika!
.....!
And I'm going to finish it off before that happens.

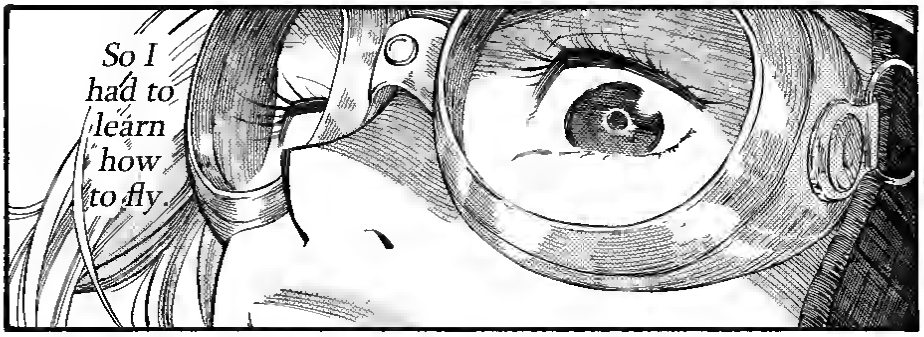
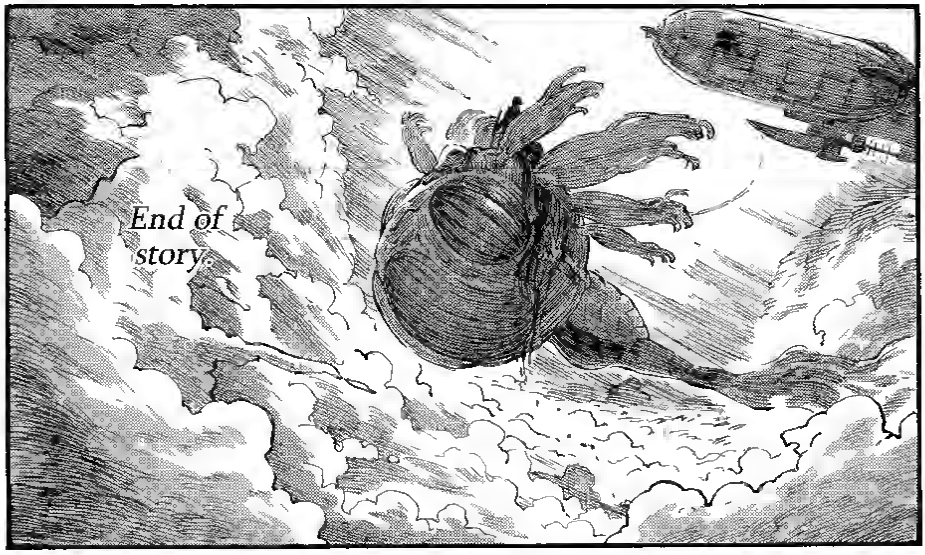
There was nowhere left for me on-land...

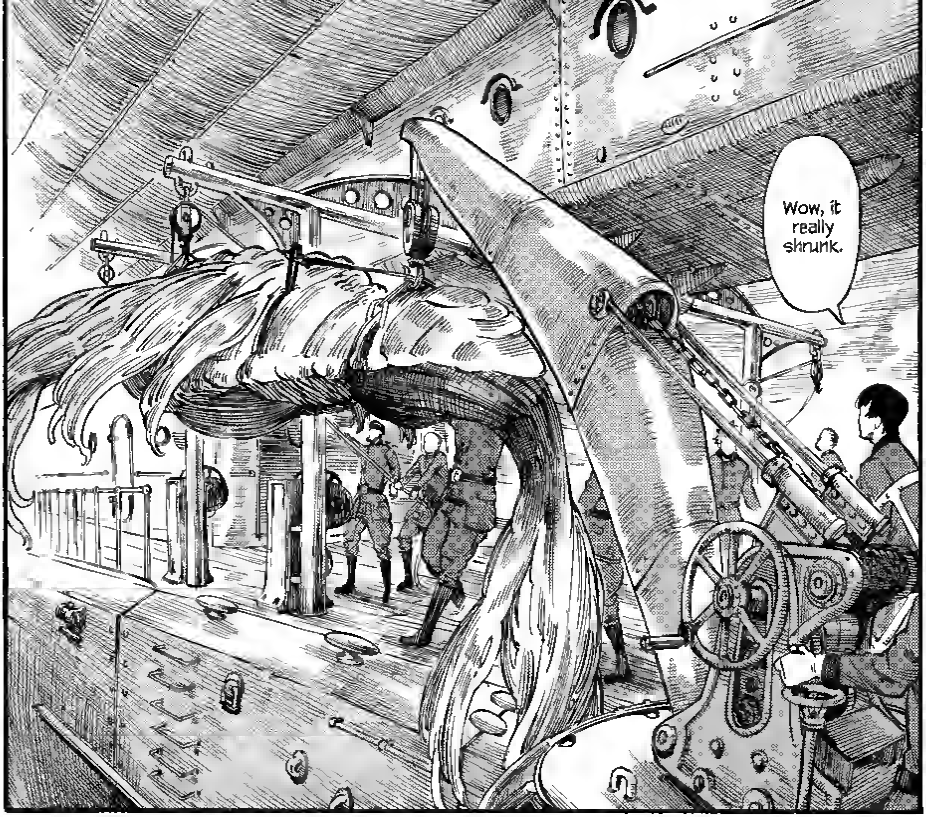


So I had to learn how to fly.

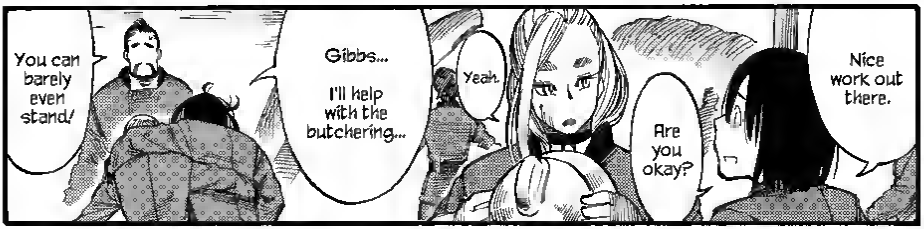
29



End of story.



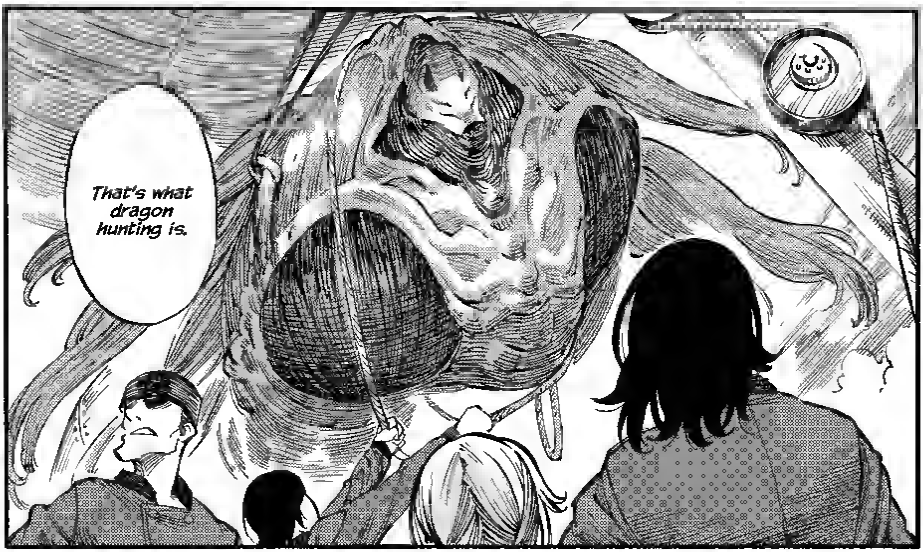
Wow, it really shrunk.



You can barely even stand!
Gibbs... I'll help with the butchering...
Yeah.
Are you okay?
Nice work out there.

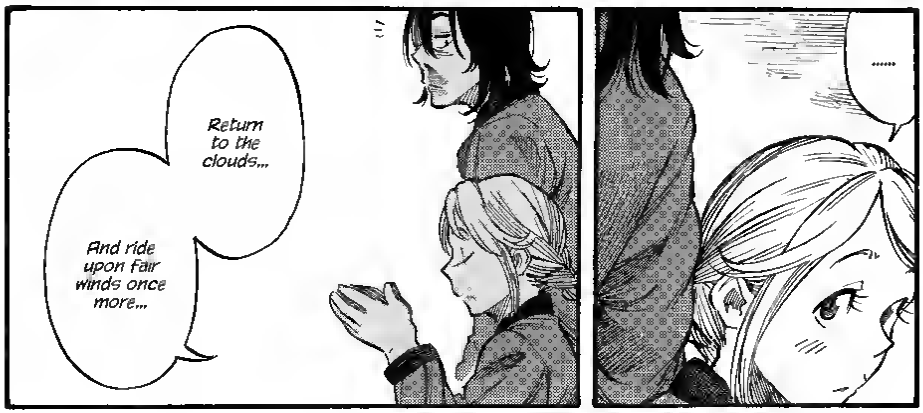
I'm not gonna die.
What's the point of catching a delicious dragon if you die before you get to eat it?
Blurgh.
See, this is what happens when you keep trying to do risky things!

We hunt them.
We butcher them.
We eat them.
I refuse to die until I eat it.

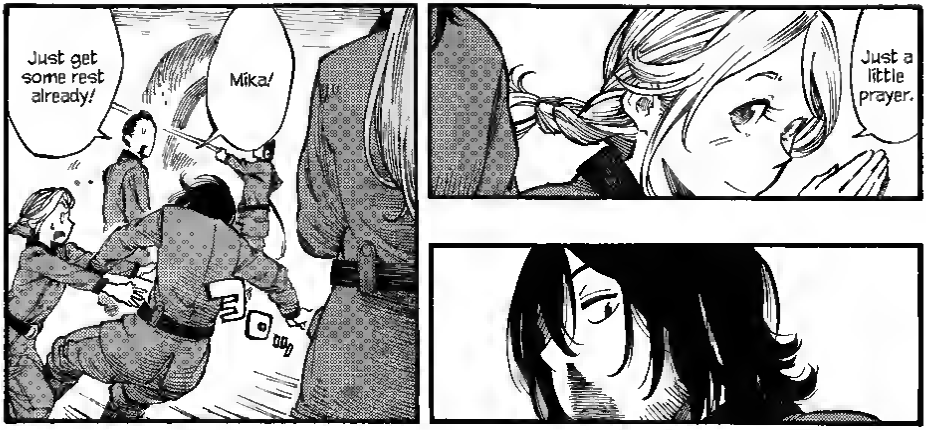


That's what dragon hunting is.

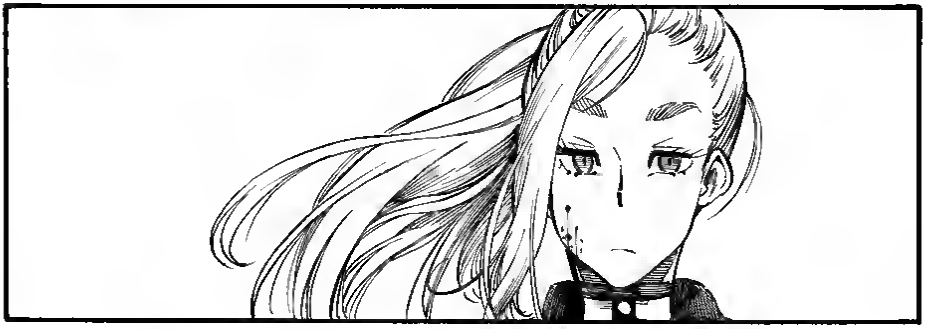
31

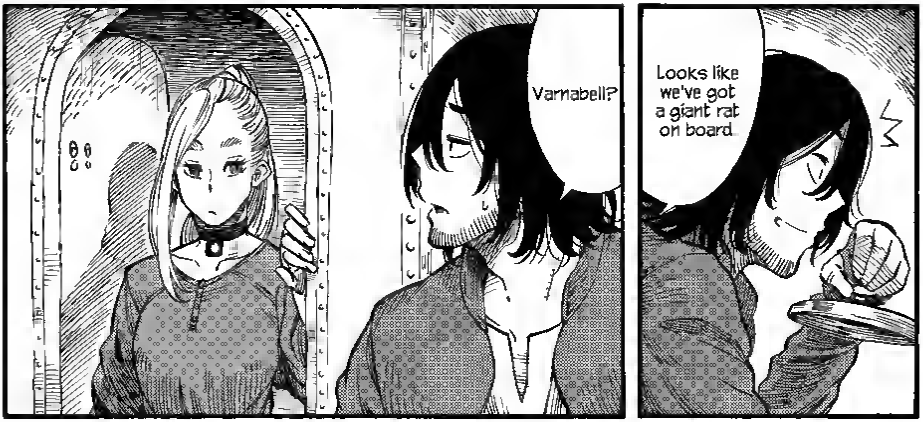


Return to the clouds...
And ride upon fair winds once more...
.....



32

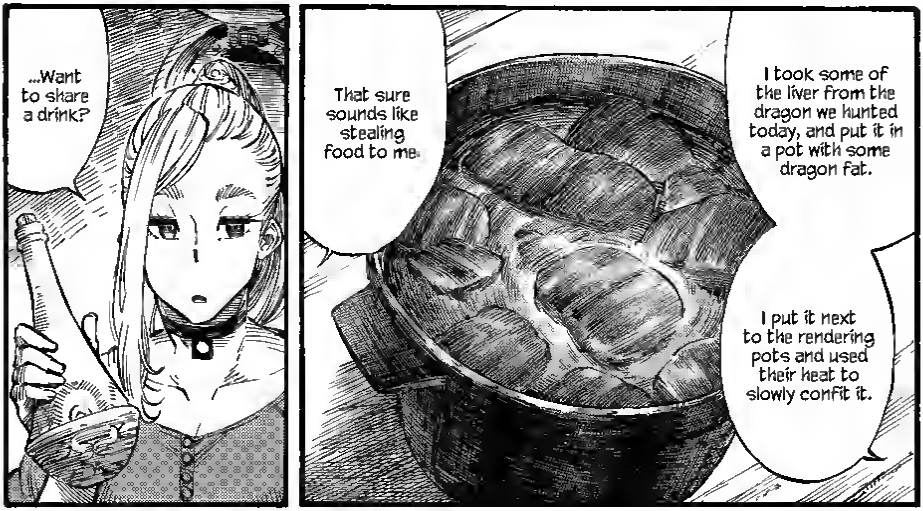




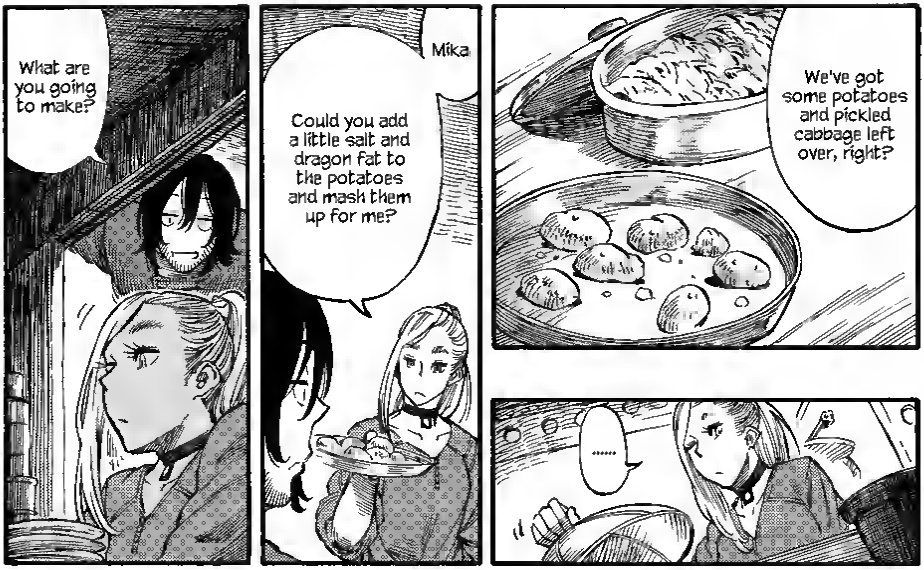
Varnabell?
Looks like we've got a giant rat on board.

I couldn't sleep.
...What's that?
I didn't come in here to steal food, okay?
And anyway, isn't your shift over already?

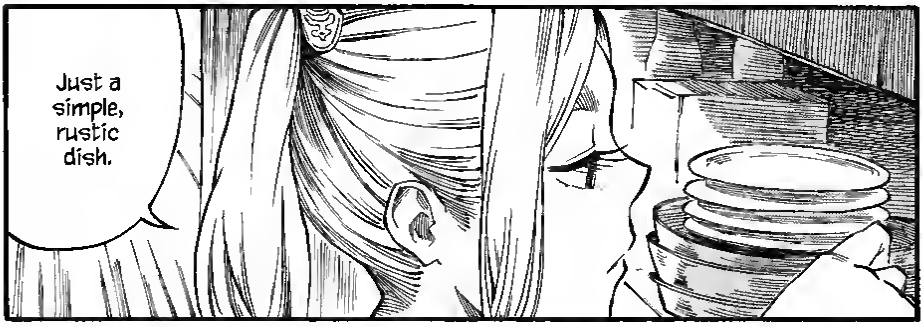
33



...Want to share a drink?
That sure sounds like stealing food to me.
I took some of the liver from the dragon we hunted today, and put it in a pot with some dragon fat.
I put it next to the rendering pots and used their heat to slowly confit it.

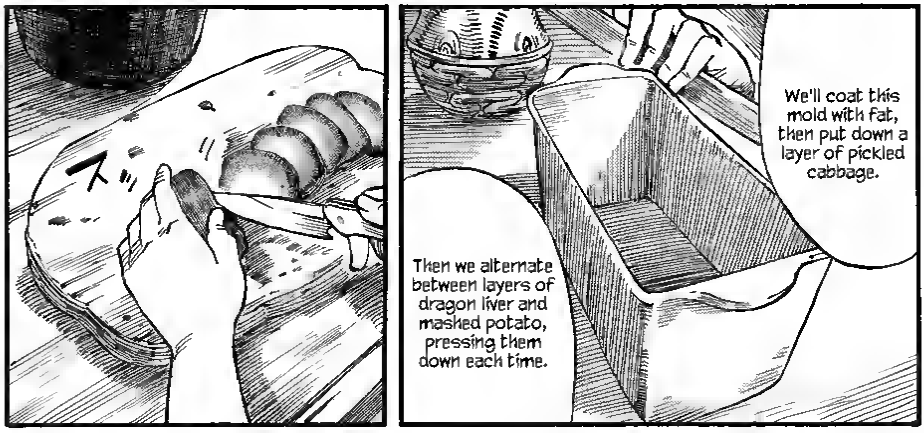


What are you going to make?
Mika
Could you add a little salt and dragon fat to the potatoes and mash them up for me?
We've got some potatoes and pickled cabbage left over, right?
.....

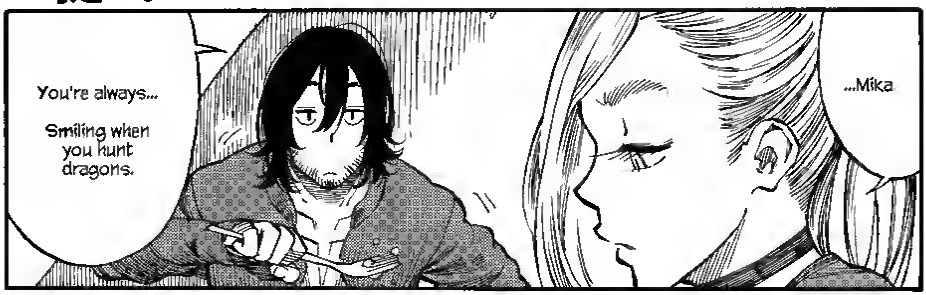


Just a simple, rustic dish.

34

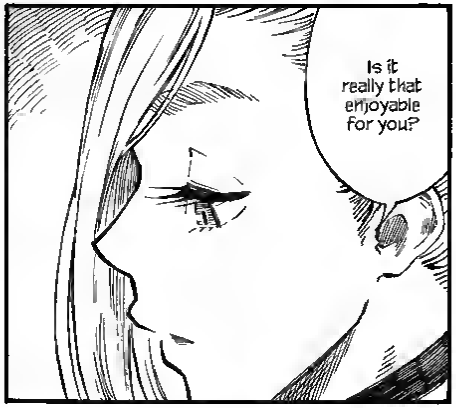


We'll coat this mold with fat, then put down a layer of pickled cabbage.
Then we alternate between layers of dragon liver and mashed potato, pressing them down each time.



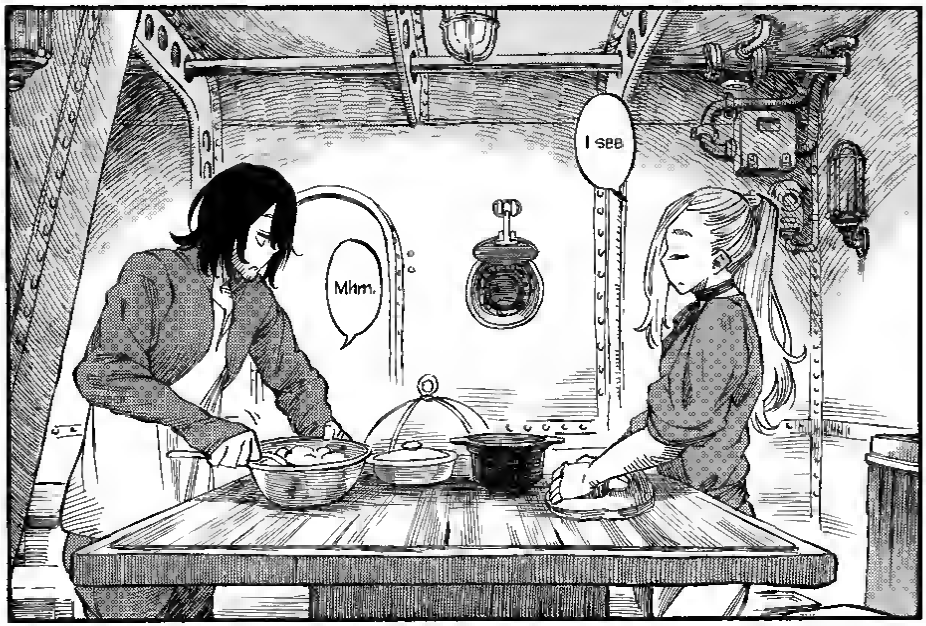
You're always...
Smiling when you hunt dragons.
...Mika.

I suppose it is.
...I dunno.
Well...



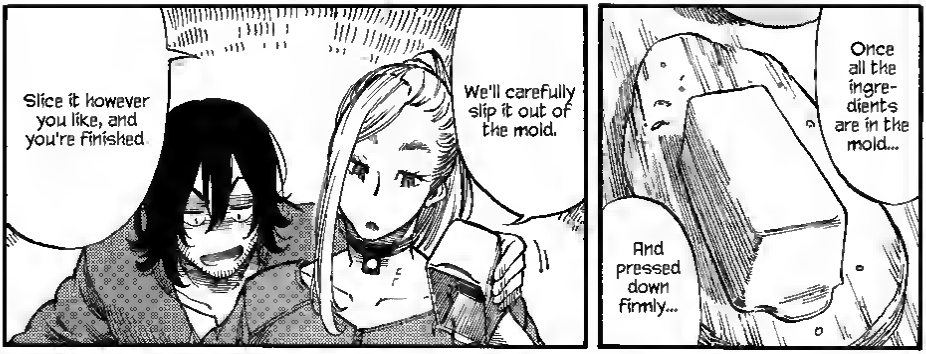
Is it really that enjoyable for you?

35

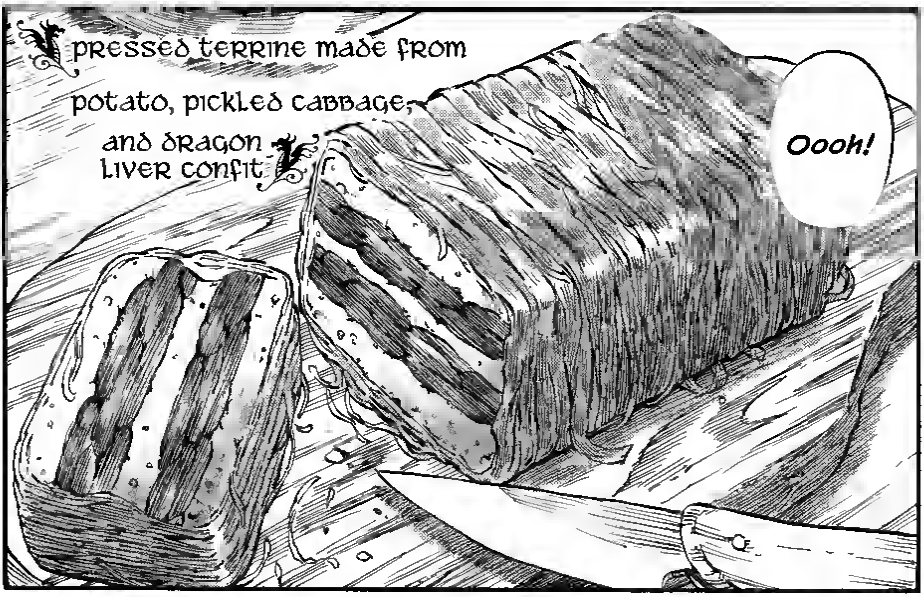


I see.
Mhm.

Ingredients (Single loaf)
■ Dragon liver 300 grams ■ Potatoes 3~4 ■ Pickled cabbage ■ Salt, to taste
■ Garlic 1~2 cloves ■ Dragon fat enough to submerge the liver



Once all the ingredients are in the mold...
And pressed down firmly...
We'll carefully slip it out of the mold.
Slice it however you like, and you're finished.



36

Recipe

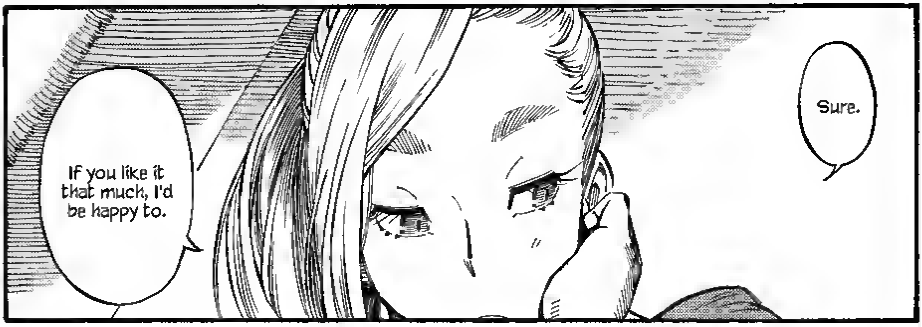
① Rub the salt, pepper, and minced garlic into the dragon liver (additional herbs & spices to taste are fine.)
② Put the dragon fat and liver into a deep pot and cook at 80 degrees for about 1.5~2 hours to make a confit

I'm impressed that you can make such a good dish just by stacking some ingredients together!
All the rich, sharp, and mild flavors are blended together!
This is fantastic, Varnabell!

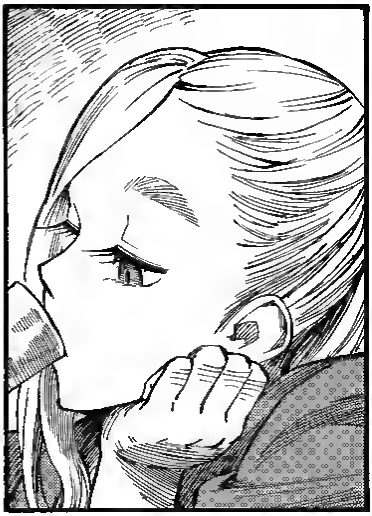
37

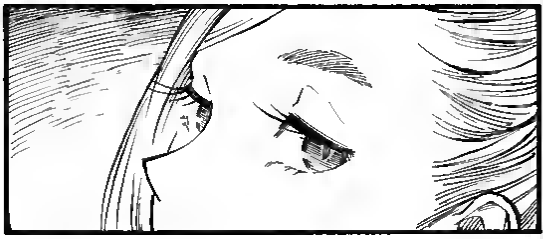
Our shift is about to start.
Yeah. It's freezing out there.
Your shift's over?
I'm not stealing food, okay!? Varnabell made this!
I wasn't accusing you of anything!
Let me try some of that!

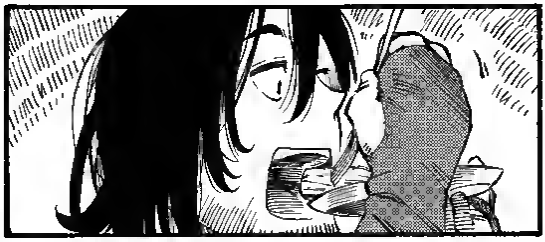
③ Mash the potatoes, and mix well with salt, pepper, and some of the fat from the confit ④ Cover the inside of a mold with pickled cabbage, then alternate between tightly packed layers of mashed potato and sliced dragon liver confit

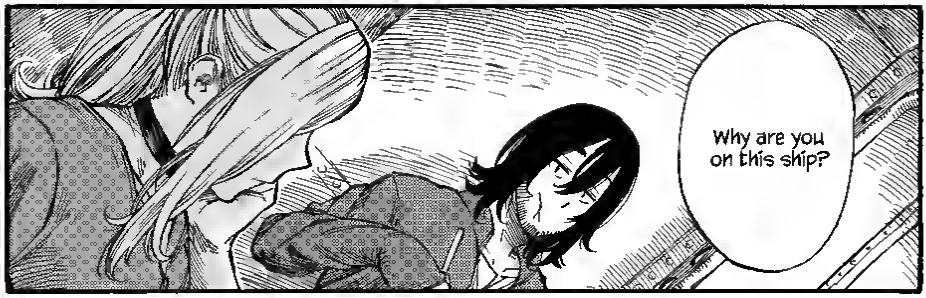


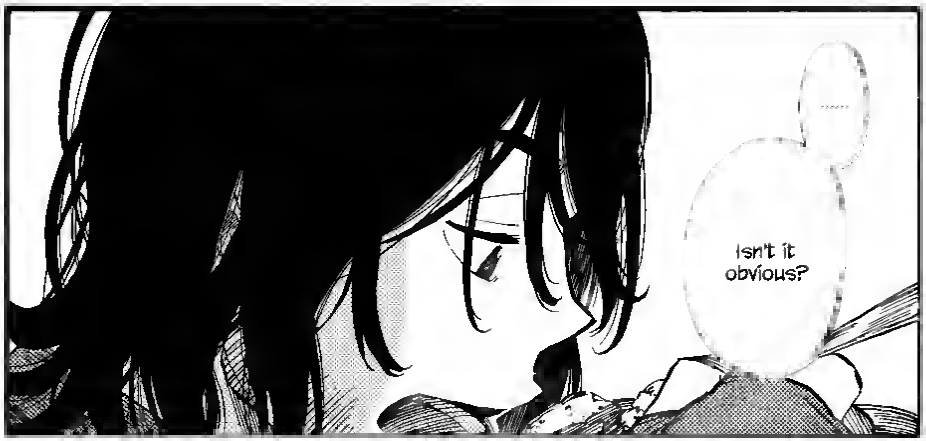
38



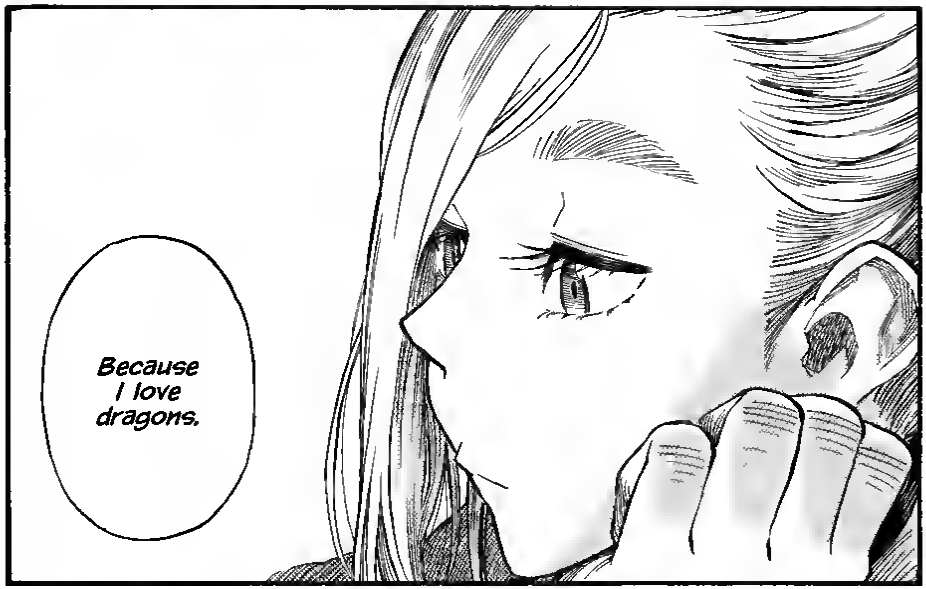








39



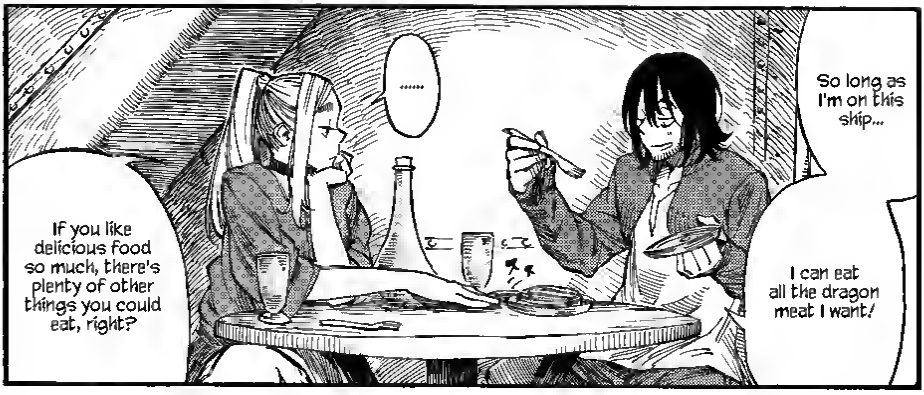
Recipe

⑤ Take the layers of pickled cabbage sticking out of the sides and fold them over the top. Push down to press the layers together (usually something heavy is left on top of the terrine for 2~3 hours). ⑥ Use a knife to separate the terrine from the mold, and slide it out.

Same here!
Hey! I've only had one slice!
I love hunting them...
Eating them...
Butchering them...

But above all else...
And I enjoy living on this ship, too.

40



.....
So long as I'm on this ship...
I can eat all the dragon meat I want!
If you like delicious food so much, there's plenty of other things you could eat, right?
